I. Noxious Weed Management Advisory Board

• Review recommendations for changes to Noxious Weed Management Plan

- The Committee reviewed information provided for recommended changes by Martie Semmer and Dan Cleary.
- Discussion of the plan as a whole and as a living document. Discussion to have local and specific about weeds resources only included. It was also noted not to included specific people and reference the organization. Discussion to keep it clear and concise.
- It was decided to keep the document clear, concise and a document that is easy to understand. It was recommended to change wording from shall to encouraged to be disposed of... on page 25. Recommendation to remove the formal complaint sentence.
- Remove HC3 reference.
- Noted that the Conclusion should be “What you can do to Help” and the focal point.
- A complete review of the document was conducted. It was noted to remove enforcement and complaints.

II. Applications for appointment

- Four applications were received from Christine Armitage; Steve Kucera; Pauline Stein; and Doug Smith. Manager Eddy noted Noah Hopkins applied for both Citizen Advisory and Trails but requested Trails. It was noted that appointees will be expected to commit and participate when needed. Decision to accept all applications submitted.

III. Discussion and review of bench selection for Corbin Finley’s community fund project. It was recommended to have all three with backs in brown.
